

Registrations are open for the International Careers Festival:

WHERE TALENT MEETS OPPORTUNITY

As of today you can apply for the second edition of the International Careers Festival, the most anticipated event of the year for aspiring diplomats and international officers in the non-profit or business world who want to launch their careers!

For more information: <http://www.internationalcareersfestival.org/dynamic/10/news/registrations-are-open!/73/b>

With a single click, through the event's official website www.internationalcareersfestival.org, thousands of young people from around the world will compete to take part in a one-of-a-kind festival designed by the Giovani nel Mondo Association to have talented students and recent graduates meet with hundreds of international opportunities.

A unique opportunity for interaction and networking, sponsored by major institutions including the Italian Presidency of the Council of Ministers, the Representation in Italy of the European Commission, UN agencies IFAD and the World Food Programme, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the UNESCO Italian Youth Committee and Roma Capitale.

The online application process to the various projects is simple and straightforward and allows participants to choose the program best suited to their academic background to launch their careers and take advantage of one of the many scholarships available.

This year from the 11th to 14th March 2017, in the heart the capital city of Rome, Giovani nel Mondo will host 35,000 young people from all continents of the world. There are five projects participants can choose from with 250 scholarships available. Moreover, there will be various workshops and seminars, stands, and not to mention the acclaimed marathon and final concert planned as the coronation of this annual event.

What are you waiting for? Apply now: international careers are waiting for you!
